1. Only guard details of 50 to 60 men each were stationed in the Panzer Kaserne and infanterie Kaserne, Kamenz (N 52/A 41), on 4 May 1950. Four T34 tanks were parked in the area of the Panzer Kaserne, near the gate facing Dietrichstrasse.
2. It was learned on 17 May 1950 that the Panzer Kaserne was recently reoccupied by 300 to 400 troops. The soldiers were 16 or 17 years of age and had closely cropped hair. They wore red-bordered black epaulets. About 120 soldiers in groups of 10 to 15 were seen doing close order drill. 25X1*

* Comment. The Kamenz units of the 11th Gds Tank Div left for Koenigsbrueck during the first half of April 1950. The information on the arrival of about 300 recruits in Kamenz on 17 May 1950 compares with similar reports of the arrival of recruits at other military posts.
